Mission Moment

As it says in Isaiah..... God calls all Christians “to bring good news to the oppressed and to bind up the brokenhearted”.

No matter who you are, or the level of your resource, how big or small our church is, God calls us to mission.

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission are lay and clergy, young and old..... All with different abilities, vocations and stations in life. Volunteers in Mission teams are indispensable parts of disaster recovery. From Maine to North Carolina, from Delaware to Missouri, these volunteers come.

We come together in order that all may offer their skills and talents for Christian service at home and abroad. Volunteers are matched with opportunities so everyone may participate in mission.

Today, Volunteers in Mission Sunday is an opportunity to honor and celebrate these volunteers for sharing their time and talents to “bring good news and bind up the brokenhearted”.
