Mission Moment

Recently, Smith College and the University of Arkansas at Little Rock, Bowen School of Law announced a joint effort to create a pipeline program.

Smith College is one of United Methodism's 11 historically black colleges and universities supported by the Black College Fund.

This partnership guarantees acceptance to Bowen School of Law for Smith graduates who meet specific criteria. To qualify for this program Smith alumni must earn a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.40, score 154 or higher on the Law School Admissions Test and have no character issues that would disqualify them from admission to the bar. In addition, Bowen School of Law also offers a 25% tuition scholarship to students who earned a bachelor's degree from an Arkansas historically black college or university.

Our giving to The Black College Fund enables schools like Smith College and Bowen School of Law to continue to develop students who impact the world God loves. We are educating and rising up leaders who are impacting lives and shaping communities.
