

October 1, 2017

Mission Moment

Today we observe World Communion Sunday alongside members of many denominations. World Communion Sunday is a reminder that we are a part of the Body of Christ that is global. Our connection with other believers goes beyond our local churches, our conferences and jurisdictions, and even beyond our denomination. When we take Holy Communion, we are also taking it in communion with the faithful followers of Christ throughout the world.

World Communion Sunday is one of our denomination wide special offerings. Today's offering goes toward World Communion Scholars, providing scholarships to individuals connected with global ministries and further equipping them to better serve the church both in international and national settings.

On this World Communion Sunday let us see all people as children of God and let us see all people in need of His love. Open our hearts that we might give to strengthen and equip those who hear your call.... to carry your love to the world.